The screenshot shows a website layout with a dark blue header containing navigation links (home, prize draw, forums, downloads, contact us, contents) and a search bar. Below the header is a large white banner with the text "there is no such thing as a 'stupid' or 'daft' health and safety question" and a "Health and Safety for Beginners" logo. The main content area is divided into several sections: a left sidebar with "about us", "downloads", "newsletter", "prize draw", "keep up to date", "our awards", "feedback", and "advertise"; a central "downloads" section with text about free health and safety downloads and a list of "Our newest downloads..." including "Accident and Incident Report Database" and "Hazard Reporting Form"; and a right-hand side advertisement column. The advertisement column contains the text "Your Logo Here" in a large, bold, yellow font, with a blue arrow pointing from the word "Here" to the word "Logo". A red arrow points from the text "Your logo here" at the bottom right of the image to the "Here" part of the advertisement.
